

ROCK'S NEW FIERCE FEMALE

Delyn Grey is a powerhouse Canadian rocker whose gritty, blues-infused sound and raw lyricism have set her apart in the modern rock scene. Known for her authentic and electrifying performances, she has captivated audiences sharing stages with notable acts like Frank Turner, Jim Cuddy, Bif Naked, and Alex Cuba. Delyn has been mentored by legendary producer Steve Lillywhite (U2, Talking Heads) since first meeting in 2018. Delyn brings a level of depth and intensity that transcends her years, marked by hauntingly soulful vocals and a magnetic stage presence.

Delyn's music combines classic rock influences with a modern edge, drawing comparisons to artists like Janis Joplin, PJ Harvey, Larkin Poe, Nirvana, and Amy Winehouse. She has amassed an impressive social media following for her unapologetically bold approach to rock. With her fierce independence, powerful storytelling, and undeniable talent, Delyn Grey is a rising force in rock music, poised to make an unforgettable impact on every stage she graces.

MEDIA HIGHLIGHTS

"Very impressive . Sounds a bit like what I was doing in the early 80's"

- Steve Lillywhite (Producer of Talking Heads, U2)

"Let's just get this out there in the open. Delyn is a super-star, the world just doesn't know it yet."

- Scott Alexander, Abort Magazine

"Just ask the generations of musicians who grew up listening to artists like Nirvana, PJ Harvey, and Jeff Buckley. Delyn is one of them."

- Eric Alper

“ From the first time I heard her moving songs, and then rushed out to see her perform, I knew I had to bring her on tour with me. Her cerebral songwriting makes me strive to be a better songwriter, artist, and manager. Her talent, words, and music move me like a hurricane. Delyn Grey is an artist to watch and it is a massive privilege for me to have worked with her. ”
